

A large, light purple rectangular area divided into four vertical sections. The first and third sections are simple rectangles. The second and fourth sections have a triangular roof shape on top, with a grey-shaded area representing the roof's slope. This layout is designed for a confessionary table.

